

Operation Ornaments

Just a Few Rules

- Any organization proposing to carry out an event must receive written approval from Operation Ornaments for the use of the name and logo in connection with the event.
- All printed or written marketing and advertising materials, including but not limited to press releases, invitations, brochures, letters, and flyers, must be reviewed and approved by Operation Ornaments.
- Operation Ornaments loves and encourages independent fundraising events. We do however reserve the right to decline events. Please do not publicly announce or promote the event until you receive official approval for your fundraiser.
- Event organizers are responsible for the planning and execution of the fundraiser. This includes promotion, staffing, training volunteers, and any liability involved.
- Any use of Operation Ornaments' name or logo without written consent is prohibited.
- Operation Ornaments does not endorse any product, organization, or service affiliated with the event or event organizers.

*All events must be promoted and conducted to avoid the declaration or appearance of an endorsement. When speaking with the media or promoting an event please use and abide by the following.

"Independently organized fundraising events to benefit Operation Ornaments are the sole responsibility of those who sponsor or organize them. Event organizers are not Operation Ornaments representatives or employees."

- Operation Ornaments reserves the right to terminate an event or deny future events by the fundraising group for failure to comply with the above policies and procedures.

Learn more and join the effort by visiting our Facebook page or our website operationornaments.org.